A3 COLOUR WITH A COMPACT FOOTPRINT!

Designed for demanding office environments, the Muratec MFX-C3400 combines high quality A3 colour output with flexible multifunction features, allowing you to copy, print, scan and fax, as standard. Yet this flexible functionality comes with a compact footprint, making the MFX-C3400 the smallest A3 colour multifunctional in its class.

For colour production the powerful MFX-C3400 has a 26 page per minute (ppm) print and copy speed, making output of colour documents, such as colour pictures, brochures and reports, quick and easy.

For black-and-white output the MFX-C3400 has a fast 34ppm print speed with duplex (double sided) copy and print offered as a standard feature. Routinely duplex printing and copying drastically reduces paper consumption, saving costs and helping the environment!

And the versatile MFX-C3400 is really easy to use thanks to a large backlit touchscreen, making it simple to intuitively mange document imaging tasks.

MURATEC's Usability Improvement (UI) Project makes it easy for users to operate our products.

HIGH QUALITY, FLEXIBLE COLOUR OUTPUT

Colour copying, printing and scanning is now a necessity for all offices. And the MFX-C3400 delivers A3 colour output without taking up valuable office space. Because all machine operation and access is at the front, the ultra compact MFX-C3400 fits easily A3 colour in an A4 space.

The MFX-C3400 delivers superb colour output with a super high detail resolution of 1200 by 600dpi for high quality results. Muratec's proven colour print technology ensures subtle tones and gradations of colour to give photographic quality to images in business documents. The RADF (re-circulating automatic document feeder) allows the versatile MFX-C3400 to perform fully automatic duplex (double sided) copying and scanning.

As well as printing onto A3 paper up to 200g/m^2 in weight, the versatile MFX-C3400 can print full colour banners up to 297 x 1,200mm in length. This means you can produce full colour banners for marketing, internal promotions and point-of-sale using your flexible MFX-C3400
